

EU Energy Law & Policy Yearbook 2011

The EU Energy Law & Policy Yearbook 2011 gives a complete overview of all current, new and upcoming developments. The most comprehensive guide for all practitioners, politicians and academics in the field.

Topics include:

European Energy Strategy for 2011-2020 and beyond »
Priorities for the EU's electricity industry during the next commission » Roadmap for Low carbon energy system by 2050
» European Infrastructure Package » EU Energy Efficiency Action Plan » Regulatory framework for smart grids » Implementation of the bio fuel sustainability scheme »
The internal market by 2014 » EU approach on energy security and infrastructure »
State aid and energy markets in a new regulatory environment »
The new Renewable Energy Directive

Contributors include:

Olivier Onidi (Deputy Head of cabinet, Energy commissioner Oettinger) » Inge Bernaerts (Head of Unit Gas & Electricity, DG Ener, EC) » Jean Arnold Vinois (Head of Unit Energy Policy, Security of supply, DG Ener) » Jos Delbeke (Director General, DG Climate Action, EC) » Alberto Pototschnig (Director, Acer) » Hans ten Berge (secretary general, Eurelectric) » Celine Gauer (Head of unit Energy Markets, DG Comp, ec)

The EU Energy Law & Policy Yearbook 2011 is edited by Jean Michel Glachant, Dr Nicole Ahner and Dr Adrien de Hauteclocque, all from the Florence School of Regulation (FSR)

Publication date: 20th. of April 2011

Order now via:

Mail: sales@claeys-casteels.com

Fax ++31 570 60 67 69

On-line: www.claeys-casteels.com

EU Energy Law & Policy Yearbook 2011, 400 pages, hard back bound, RRP € 165,-(excl VAT)
ISBN 9789081690416, Claeys & Casteels Publishing 2011